Looking Forward To 2030 - Queen's Square - Wednesday 1st March

The road we're currently on leads only to destruction. Can we find a way to a better future nonetheless?

There is now armed conflict on every continent – most notably, full-scale war in Ukraine, Myanmar and Ethiopia. Gross inequality is increasing – according to Oxfam, since 2020 the richest 1% have pocketed $26 trillion in new wealth, almost twice as much as the rest of the world put together. Climate breakdown is accelerating, bringing ever closer the threat of irreversible catastrophe. Everywhere our relentless assault on the natural world seems to be intensifying. Can we still find a way to a better future?

This event is sponsored by Bath & District UNA, Bath Stop War and Rethinking Security

RECENT HAPPENINGS

Bristol Airport, sadly was given the go-ahead after a public inquiry found that as aeroplane emissions are not counted in government policy, they can increase passenger numbers from 10 million to 12 million! This is not the end of it and the fight goes on. Bath rebels were involved with Landing Crew and the Climate Choir at the public announcement and rally last week. Fundraiser has been paused as so much has been raised in the first 3 days!

Suffragette Solidarity action on Friday 27th January in support of the Barclays 7, found guilty of criminal damage when they broke Barclays HQ windows. A big gathering of around 150 suffragettes gathered at Bank of England and marched to Southwark Crown Court where they stayed for the sentencing holding a rally with speakers such as Helen Pankhurst (great-grand daughter of Emmeline) and Juliet Stevenson (actor) and many more. This was initiated by Bath XR and was a shining example of how an action can come together and be taken up by the whole movement. They all got suspended sentences! Yay!! Read more about it HERE

Bath TUC Rally

Wednesday 1st February at 12.30 in Brunel Square, 5 unions coordinated a strike and Bath XR supported this local solidarity event with a banner, flyers on 100 days and PA. Bath XR is supporting the many strikes by showing up on picket lines.
